FOR RELEASE SUNDAY, MAY 16

$1,575

Prizes to outstanding seniors and ~~$2,215~~ in scholarships to undergraduates will be presented at the annual awards banquet of the Montana State University School of Pharmacy, Dean Robert L. Van Horne announced.

The banquet speaker is Prof. Emeritus John F. Suchy, who retired from the pharmacy faculty in 1958 and now lives in Coronado, Calif.

Pharmacists and other friends of the school are invited to join students and their relatives for the buffet dinner Tuesday at 6:30 p. m. in the Territorial rooms of the MSU Lodge. Monday is the deadline for making dinner reservations at the School of Pharmacy office.

Prizes for graduating seniors include the Bristol award of a medical dictionary for the highest average in dispensing pharmacy, the Merck award of a Manual and an Index for outstanding scholarship in professional courses and aptitude for research, the Rexall bronze mortar and pestle trophy for the greatest contribution to student professional activities, and the Johnson & Johnson mortar and pestle for the highest scholarship in administrative pharmacy, accounting, marketing and economics.

Scholarships for undergraduates are three American Foundation for Pharmacy Education awards of $200 each for juniors or seniors in the upper 25 per cent of their class, two Davis Brothers scholarships of $75 each for students above the freshman level, ~~Pepsodent Presidential scholarship of $500, to be paid in yearly installments, for a Montana high-school graduate who elects the five-year pharmacy program at MSU.~~

Three Sidney J. Coffee scholarships of $200 each for a deserving student selected by the faculty, Professional Apoteke scholarship of $225, donated by Robert Stoick of the Medical Clinical Pharmacy, Missoula, for a sixth-quarter pharmacy student, ~~and the John W. Dargavel Foundation scholarship of $200, sponsored by the National Association of Retail Druggists, for a third-year pharmacy student.~~
